2023 Lent Offerings

---

Worship & Music

Lenten Prayer Services

Wednesdays, March 1, 8, 15, 22, & 29 and April 5
12pm
Chapel

Let us come together each Wednesday in Lent to lift up prayers for the cares and concerns of our lives, the lives of others, and our world.

Sunday Worship

February 26, March 5, 12, 19, & 26, and April 2
9:30am

On Sundays throughout Lent we will embrace the realities of the messiness of life and our human frailties. Through worship and experience-based opportunities we will explore what it looks like to rely on God's mercy and presence to lift us to renewed life.

Music of Remembrance and Reflection: A Lenten Choral Concert

Saturday, April 1
4:00pm

First Pres Presents the Chancel Choir of First Presbyterian Church in a special Lenten concert featuring Mark Hayes' "Requiem" and a variety of Lent-themed songs and anthems. This particular requiem was composed in 2013 and includes both Latin and English texts. The Chancel Choir will be joined by a wind ensemble of local musicians. Admission is free.

Lenten Reflection Devotional

Each week, you're invited to experience a special time with God through this short (5-10 minute) at-home devotional that focuses on Christ and His journey to the cross. On Sundays, starting 2/26, a table will be available in the Narthex for you to pick up the weekly meditation and coordinating Lenten symbol.

Holy Week Walk: Following Jesus

Sunday, April 2

5:00pm

Gain new perspective on the events of Jesus' last days with this interactive and reflective journey through the scriptures of Holy Week experienced while walking around the campus of First Presbyterian Church.
