

Kathryn Pumphrey

Kathryn and her husband, Dick, have been part of the FPCLY community for 39 years. They raised their adult children, Ben and Meredith, here. Kathryn has served in various capacities at FPCLY. In the past, she has served as a Deacon and Elder, on the Community Missions and Stewardship (2 times) Committees and sang in the Chancel Choir for 15 years! This is her second term as an Elder where she is serving on the Finance Committee and as Chair of our Rooted and Reaching Capital Campaign. Kathryn recently retired from a 21 year career as the Executive Vice President of the Centra Foundation; past work has also included directing fundraising programs on the college and independent school levels. In her spare time, Kathryn enjoys reading, hiking, US and art history, traveling, gardening, and spending time with her grandchildren. Kathryn has been writing her own poetry on and off for 35 years!!!

Favorite Scripture: Colossians 3:14, "Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony."
