

Rob Cleland

Rob has been a part of the FPCLY faith community for his entire life--born and raised in this church. He was baptized and confirmed here while growing up. As an adult, Rob has faithfully served FPCLY on the Diaconate and on the Finance Committee.

As an elder he currently serves on the Facilities Committee and is the project manager for the organ renovation project.

He . You may recognize his three kids, Hunter (17), Taylor (13), and Barkley (10), who have grown up here at FPCLY as well.

Rob currently works as the Director of Purchasing at Moore and Giles and has been there for many years. In his free time, Rob enjoys shooting sports, playing golf, and spending time with his kids. Fun fact, Rob has been to Italy a total of seven times.

Favorite Scripture: Jeremiah 29:11, "For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope."
