

Robert O'Brian, Jr.

Robert is married to Whitney and together they have five children—two girls, Althea and Cullen (both 11), and three boys, Ben (10), Sam (7), and Ray (2). Robert enjoys playing golf, music and playing the guitar especially with his wife. You may know both of them from sharing their musical talents in worship or at one of our FPP concerts!

They are quite talented. He also loves spending time with his children. Robert has been working in the family business, Lynchburg Ready Mix, for over 14 years. He has been involved in the FPCLY community since his birth; he was both baptized and confirmed here. As an adult, he has served on the Congregational Life committee for 3 years and currently serves on the Facilities Committee and Session.
