

Becky Giles

Becky has lived in Lynchburg since 1999, when she moved from Charlotte, NC with her husband, Caskie. Shortly afterward, they started a family and have two children, Harrison (22) and Liza (20) - each baptized as 6th generation members of First Presbyterian. Becky owns and operates a boutique furniture company, White Fine Furnishings, which caters to the design trade. Since the pandemic started, she also works with Caskie at Blue Ridge Mortgage. Becky is currently serving as a Trustee at Westminster Canterbury.

Becky has been involved in multiple ministries and programs at FPCLY including serving with children and youth and in leadership. She has previously served as Clerk of Session, Elder and Deacon, chaired multiple committees (Communications, Worship & Music, and Buildings) and co-chaired a Pastor Nominating Committee and Discernment Committee and served on the Strategic Planning & Implementation Committees. Currently, she is teaching Sunday School to 4th and 5th graders.

Her favorite scripture verse is Isaiah 41: 13.
