

Jackie Hill

Jackie is married to Ron and is mother to four children—Blaine, a PCUSA pastor, Tucker, owner of Good Earth, Daniel a food server, and Sarah, a service provider for individuals with disabilities. While raising her children, Jackie was a registered nurse. Now retired, she enjoys reading, knitting, traveling, working in her yard and spending time with her seven grandchildren. Jackie has been at FPCLY for 38 years serving in a variety of roles. She has taught Sunday School classes, Vacation Bible School, and the Presbyterian Women. She has served a leadership term on the Diaconate and currently helps with the Funeral Guild and as a receptionist.

Favorite scripture: Jonah 3:2, "the voice of God came to Jonah a second time."
