

Ken Slusher

Ken is a widower who has been a part of our FPCLY community for approximately five years. Ken is the proud father of three daughters and two stepsons and the joyous grandfather of nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Ken has enjoyed traveling throughout his life—across the United States or around the world, it doesn't matter as he never tires of travel. He also enjoys hiking and using his camera to take photographs. In his working days, Ken was an airplane pilot and a chief flight instructor. Aside from faithfully and actively worshipping at First Presbyterian, Ken has been a tremendous help serving as a sound operator during services.
