

Rick Milam

Rick and his family have been a part of the Lynchburg community since 1989. He and his wife, Marcia, have been married for 39 years. They have two, married children, Rebecca and Brad, and 3 grandchildren. Rick has served in the medical field for over 45 years as a physician's assistant in heart surgery and orthopedics and managing a recruiting business for physician's assistants.

Since "retiring," Rick has stayed active in teaching PA students and overseeing PAs across the country. In his free time, Rick enjoys traveling with his wife, visiting his grandchildren, and going on weekly hikes with a men's group. Rick has been a member at FPCLY for 23 years serving four years on the grounds committee and being a constant resource and support for Kathleen in children's and youth activities.

Favorite scripture: Psalm 121: 1-2, "I will lift up mine eyes to the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord who made Heaven and earth."
