

Matt Foster

Matt and his wife, Susan, have lived in Lynchburg for almost 20 years. They have three daughters, Emily, Megan, and Kirsten. After working as a pathologist for years, Matt now serves as the Chief Physician Executive and Senior Vice President at Centra Health. Matt is excited to serve at FPCLY and looking forward to “the opportunity to continue creating a community of faith” and shares that “forging a deeper relationship with one another and with God can fill all our cups. In a time of so much uncertainty, fear and doubt, 1st Pres can and does serve as a stabilizing force grounding us in a common faith and love for one another.”

Favorite scripture: Micah 6:8
