

Marilyn Hartman

Marilyn joined First Presbyterian with her husband, David, after they relocated from San Jose, CA. She has served at FPCLY previously as a Deacon and twice as an Elder. Her continued activities at the church include Presbyterian Women, Sunday School, Members Helping Members, prayer chain, Chancel Guild and after church refreshments. Marilyn also is a member of the choir and bells. In the community, Marilyn is an ARC blood donor and volunteers at Daily Bread and Rivermont Food Pantry.

After retiring from Centra as a VBH Medical Technologist, Marilyn has enjoyed reading, listening to Audible books, and working with flowers. She also began hiking and completed the 88 miles of NBATC, then all of the VA AT, and finally completed the entire AT in 2020. She enjoys going with her husband to visit their two daughters for long weekends: Skye (veterinarian) & Leah (forensic human factors consultant). Marilyn has a heart for serving those in need and being a loving member of God's Kingdom.

A favorite verse is Hebrews 11:1.
