Welcome to First Presbyterian Church- Lynchburg, VA

Grace and peace to you from our Lord Jesus Christ!!! It is a gift to be with you this morning to worship God and bring God praise and honor in prayer, song, and fellowship together. Something about today feels extra special because we haven't been together the last two Sundays due to the snow. I pray you were safe, had a chance to embrace the blanket of silence and maybe even enjoy some childlike play.

As we gather to worship today, I want you to know you are welcome here and you are enough just as you are. I believe God sees it that way too. As a community of faith, we are all seeking to do our best in being faithful to God and it feels great to have others to walk along side in this journey. I pray you will find a place of purpose and belonging in the life and ministries of FPCLY and if I can help you specifically in any way, please let me know. A good cup of coffee and conversation never hurts either 😊.

Today is Scout Sunday and as a church community we are grateful to be joined by all the scout leaders, scouts, and families of Cub Pack 7, Troop 7, and Troop 49. Scouting is built on the values and virtues embraced and taught through the church. A scout promises duty to God and country, duty to other people, and duty to self. A Scout is: Trustworthy, Loyal, Helpful, Friendly, Courteous, Kind, Obedient, Cheerful, Thrifty, Brave, Clean, and Reverent. For decades, First Presbyterian Church has partnered in ministry with scouting through the sharing of space, Eagle Scout projects, God and Country and PRAY classes, and of course, popcorn, cookie, and bake sale fundraisers. As we gather for worship today, we do so as ONE in celebration of the grace of God empowering our relationship to be everything it has become.

Today, we also have the opportunity to welcome Erik Koroneos to the pulpit. As a longtime member of FPCLY, Erik is no stranger. For the last several years, he has been serving as a Commissioned Pastor in the Presbytery of the Peaks, leading worship and preaching in many smaller congregations. In addition, Erik has been following God's opportunities to share how God has worked in and through his life, motivating many groups of men through Souly Business and the Journey. His own personal journey is one of "Priority" and I thank God for Erik's willingness and ability to be with us today. Let us worship God together.

Building Hospitality and Welcoming Children

Just as God's arms are open wide with grace and welcome, so too are the doors of FPCLY open wide with hospitality. The following are a few notes to help be a comfort and guide during your time here:

- Ushers are available and willing to assist you in finding your way or answering other questions.
- All visitors are encouraged to stop by the Hospitality (Welcome) Desk near the main entrance for more information or to share your contact information.
- Hearing-assist devices, Large Print Bulletins, and Large Print Hymnals can be found in the Narthex.
- Accessible Restrooms can be located down the main hallway from the Foyer.
- The Elevator is also located down the main hallway from the Foyer.
- The Nursery (ages 0 to 3) and Nursery Nook are located on this level through the Chapel in Room 101. A Nursery Care Provider is there to help assist you.
- Welcoming Children: Just as Jesus welcomes the little children to come, so we welcome children of all ages in worship. In order to make the worship service as welcoming for our littlest ones as possible, we provide worship carts in the Narthex with a variety of resources to make a worship bag. Following the Children's Moment, children age 4 years to 2nd grade are invited to a Worship Workshop led by Abby Boyle, our Worship Workshop Coordinator. Worship Workshop runs from post Children's Moment to the Benediction, with all participants being led from the Sanctuary to Room 1 (downstairs below Library) for activities and then back to the Narthex for pickup.

Interested in joining?

First Presbyterian would love to welcome YOU as a new member. If you'd like to be here in a more official capacity, you are invited to join First Presbyterian as a member. Everyone who is part of our community is treated the same. Joining isn't about special treatment, but rather about a commitment you make to following Jesus alongside others trying to do the same. If you are interested in learning more, please contact Rev. Dr. Peter Thompson (peter@fpcl.org) or Alex Collier (alex@fpcl.org).

Service of the Lord's Day... Scout Sunday

February 8, 2026

From the beginning of the early church, God's people have met to worship on the first day of the week, the day Christ Jesus rose from the dead. We gather to praise the Triune God, confess our sin, and seek God's grace. We hear the good news of the gospel and are invited to respond to that good news in prayer, mission, offering, and celebrating the Lord's Supper. We are sent forth to glorify God through the service of daily living.

Those who are able, please stand.*

All are invited to join together in saying liturgy printed in bold.

Singing forevermore, "Alleluia! Amen!"

Call to Confession

Prayers of Confession

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart and mind and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. In your mercy forgive what we have been, help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways. (Please take a moment for silent prayer)

Assurance of Pardon

As the water is poured into the baptismal font, and the good news of God is shared, know that anyone who is in Christ is a new creation. God embraces you, forgives you, and strengthens you to live a renewed life. Glory be to God. Alleluia. Amen.

*Gloria Patri

Hymn #579

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

Utter it even unto the ends of the earth. The Lord hath delivered His people, Alleluia!

With a voice of singing, declare ye this, and let it be heard, Alleluia!*

WE GO OUT IN GOD'S SERVICE

Hymn #341: Blessed Assurance, Jesus is Mine!

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine! Oh, what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God,
born of His Spirit, washed in His blood.

Refrain:

This is my story, this is my song, praising my Savior all the day long.
This is my story, this is my song, praising my Savior all the day long.

Perfect submission, perfect delight, visions of rapture now burst on my sight.
Angels descending bring from above echoes of mercy, whispers of love. [Refrain]

Perfect submission, all is at rest. I in my Savior am happy and blest, watching and waiting, looking above, filled with His goodness, lost in His love. [Refrain]
